The plan is:

Saturday: Leave Gingers Roadhouse and head north along the Great Northern Highway with a morning tea stop at Dalwallinu. From here we continue north with a fuel stop at Wubin for those that need it, then travel another 80km north to Ninghan Station (arrive around 1300hrs). We will go to the homestead pay our camping fees and then head off to find a campsite. Then set up and sit back and relax with drink and nibbles.

Sunday: In the morning travel to and climb (4wd required 😊) Mount Singleton and check out the views. Then in the afternoon explore the station for those that want to, then return to camp for drink and nibbles.

Monday: Unfortunately pack up camp and be on the road home by 0900hrs.

Pets are permitted on the station, at YOUR own risk, as baits are used across the station

Trip is suitable for campers and off road caravans
